It further uses the different interfaces of the Windows System via the activation. is it works on netbook (version 11)? if not, what's the driver for on netbook? i can't use it, thanks Xerox - DocuWare - daivedicillo ===== daivedicillo Anyone has an idea about the application that is meant to fill this gap? I think a lot of people would like to have something like this with a more upfront approach. --- steve Kemp It looks quite hit-or-miss to me. Some of the docs are ok, but not many. Many of the docs I downloaded seemed to be from the 70s. It doesn't look like the example usage is meant to actually use the service, just (correctly) fetches the relevant docs and displays them - which you can do yourself by hand using file/ or google docs or even some obscure web service like - I think those docs you downloaded are from the 70s because they were for a products X, however this product DocuWare doesn't seem to be all that different. I don't know how far they are using the services provided, but I expect it will be limited to just putting the files in an FTP or HTTP directory. --- daivedicillo oh, ok, I was under the impression they had some integration with a proper solution. [Chromosomal abnormalities in childhood nephrotic syndrome and their treatment (2)]. The authors analyze the incidence of chromosomal anomalies, the incidence of various chromosomal anomalies was studied in 158 cases of children with nephrotic syndrome. Thirty-five patients with nephrotic syndrome were registered as having a chromosomal aberration before the treatment was started. This group of patients was characterized by a higher incidence of Down's syndrome (8%), followed by trisomy 18 (5%), Down's syndromes (2.7%) and structural aberrations (1.8%). Patients with chromosomal anomalies showed a better course of the disease and better subjective tolerance to therapy.Stokes County High School Stokes County High School may refer to: f678ea9f9e
